REWARD FOR THE FAITHFUL

Breaking of Bread: Nehemiah 13: 23-31

Thanksgiving:

Sing and Praise God for chosen you to hear and pray through these truths. Thank Him for opening your eyes and given your hearts understanding of scriptural mysteries.

Theme Song:

1. My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;

All other ground is sinking sand.

2. When He shall come with trumpet sound,

Oh, may I then in Him be found,

Clothed in His righteousness alone,

Faultless to stand before the throne!

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;

All other ground is sinking sand.

REWARD FOR THE FAITHFUL

The faithful servant is worthy of his wages. A good soldier is deserving of his allowances, just as a faithful steward is entitled to his reward. God will never and has never called anyone in vain without a necessary and befitting reward plan. When He gives a command, He will also line up the consequences of disobedient and at the same time He will clearly states the benefits accrue to obedience (Deuteronomy 28). "I served God and I got stranded" has never been the song of the faithful because God will surely owe no man. God will not only reward the faithful mighty men, who stood to defy the enemies at great personal cost, He will also faithfully reward every foot soldiers, the unseen warrior who laboured from behind the scenes, the mother who single handedly raised a God general without much supports from close relatives, the man who stood between the seen and the unseen in the place of prayer for his family, children and friends and those faithful men and women who groan before God in prayers on the behalf of nations and all abiding soldiers, faithfully waiting, in the hosts of the Lord shall have their rewards in full, both in time and in eternity. Therefore, like Nehemiah, today we will be asking God to look upon all these personal sacrifices, offerings and labour that were done in His Name for good (Nehemiah 13:31).
