ALLELUIA BECAUSE GOD REIGNS

Breaking of Bread: Revelation 19:1-6

ALLELUIA: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth (Revelation 19:6). That was the voice of a great multitude of heavenly host, united in hearts and purpose in such manner that their many voices streamlined and fused into one single voice as of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thundering, saying, Alleluia: for (because) the Lord God omnipotent reigns. Which simply means, ALLELUIA (originally from the Hebrew word "allelouia" meaning Praise ye Jah), is song of worship and a shout of praise to affirm the Kingship of God over all things. ALLELUIA because God reigns supreme over all situations and circumstances, He reigns over kings and priests, He reigns and rule over dominion, power, principalities, kingdoms and authorities. He is the Father of all spirits, He reigns over demons and angels. He reigns everywhere, everything have their beings because He reigns (Colossians 1:16-17).

Whenever we sing or shout ALLELUIA, we must do so with understanding, "For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding" (Psalms 47:7), not just because we have victory in battles, or because we just subdue kingdoms or powers that threatened the peace in our domains or the unity of our vineyards, or because we wrought righteousness having defeated familiar sins that once held us captive, or because we stopped the mouth of lions by Him, or because we turned to flight the armies of the aliens who once besieged our spaces, or because dead wombs came to life again and women received their babies or because we have victory over long standing sickness or diseases that once stood like Jericho wall around our bodies or because we find Him true to do promises and covenants.

Any of these, and all of them with many more are sufficient grounds to sing, shout and echo ALLELUIA to God, our God, our Father and the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ but much more importantly, the scripture tells us in Revelation 19:6 that when all these are true and even when they seem absent, God is eternally deserving and must be worship with songs and shouts of ALLELUIA now and always because He rules and reigns as KING forever. ALLELUIA: for the Lord God omnipotent (All Powerful, Almighty, Sovereign, King) reigneth (rules over all flesh and spirit, and over all material and immaterial things). AMEN: ALLELUIA.
