of respect for them or it. It is one thing to have victory, it is another to keep and maintain it. With the right strategy and help, victories can be won but keeping and staying victorious is demanding and expensive. One of the greatest misfortune of the life of faith is attempting to keep a victory won in the spirit with the arm of flesh. It is a calamity to begin in the spirit, and end in the flesh when comfort and rest is taken too far. Familiarity breeds contempt. There are many reasons for this, we will consider and pray on one of such today.

All lessons and prayers are from the text used in today's Breaking of Bread.
