ABORTED AND INCONCLUSIVE VICTORIES

Many battles we fight are inconclusive and inherited from those before us. There are things we can't just wished away, if we fail to tackle them and see to their end, we will only leave the unfinished wars for those coming after us to continue from where we stopped. Jesus our perfect example said, it is finished. It was until then He gave up His spirit. Another like Him we must patterned our lives and parenting after is Apostle Paul, while addressing the elders from the church in Ephesus, who were worried having heard of the troubles that await him at Jerusalem, Paul said in Acts 20:24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

As long as we focus on ourselves, our personal enjoyment and pleasure, we will most certainly leave behind many unfinished battles for those coming behind to fight. A self-centered man cannot fight and win any important life challenge, long enough for others in his loins to savor the joy of its victory. No wonder Paul was bold enough to advice generations of unending spiritual children, myself and you inclusive, when he said in 2 Timothy 4:5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. As he summarize a life well lived this way: For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing (2 Timothy 4:6-8).

As long as we keep thinking about ourselves alone, there will surely be many unfinished and unnecessary battles others will be force to continue long after we have retired from the battle line. If Jesus Christ, Paul, David (Acts 13:36) and host of others finished their courses, we too can do much better through Christ our Strength. All lessons and prayers are from the text used in today's Breaking of Bread.

1. I will not abort my own victory in Jesus Name. Amen

2. I receive utterances and inspirations to do the needful rightly and timely in Jesus Name.

3. I am knowledgeable in the spirit and have understanding spirit on all matters affecting my life and family in Jesus Name. Amen

4. I will not be confused on matters affecting me and my home in Jesus Name. Amen

5. I will not overrate my challenges and underestimate divine solutions in Jesus Name. Amen

6. I will not listen to the whispering of devils urging me to stop trying at the point of victory in Jesus Name.

7. I will live godly inheritance for my children and not unfinished battles in Jesus Name. Amen

8. I declare a conclusive end to all inherited and unfinished battles I took over from my parents, by marriage and by birth in Jesus Name. Amen

9. I declare my victories are transferable, a perpetual covenant for all generations in Jesus Name. Amen

May your victory be permanent, may God bless you and your generations with peace and may your victories be preserved and protected in the Blood of Jesus Christ forever in Jesus Christ Name. Amen!
